WANT ADVERTISERS.

IF SUCCESSIVE.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 1891.

PRICE ONE CENT.

2 O'CLOCK.

HOT ON THE TRAIL

Detectives Hopeful Now of Catching Hannah Robinson's Slaver.

Searching for George Smith, the Father of Her Child.

The Murdered Girl's Remains to Be Burled To-Day.

The detectives are hot on the trail of the frand last Sunday morning on the Fresh Fond road, near Glendale, L. I.

Besides confirming the alibi of the dead learned, spent last Saturday and part of Sunday with his sweetheart at Navesink, N. J., which they were assidulously engaged in following up to-day.

While Phillips has known tittle of the girl personally in the last two years, he has volunteered to aid the officers in the search for they walked away together. the murderer, and it is believed that his assistynce will be of great value.

When he was released at Jamaica yester-day, instead of going home. Phillips stayed around with District-Attorney Fieming all day. The latter was constantly expecting day evening, saw nothing of them. tidings of the arrest of at least one new susremained at Jamaica to identify him.

This new suspect is believed to be George Smith, an Englishman and a blacksmith, who is twenty-six years old, and who is alleged to have betrayed Hannah two years ago. Phillips would not tell an Evening World reporter whether he knew any of Hannah's recent associates or not, but as an unsuccessful attempt was made to fasten the paternity of know him personally.

Coroner Homeyer this morning said that no arrest had been made, but he admitted that he had hurried over to Jamaica late last night to consult with District-Attorney Fleming about making an arrest. Constable Brechter says Special Policeman

Gilbert Dooley told him he saw a couple in Evergreens Cemetery Saturday evening and that they were quarrelling over some letters. The constable, however, does not believe that this couple were Hannah and her mur Believes Weber Is the Assassin. Coroner Homeyer last night adjourned the equest for a weak pending further investiga- in a minute." tions. He still denies that Identifier Weber is wanted, but at the same time District-Attorney Fleming and Constable Benjamin Ashmead, of Jamaica, are making a vigorous search for him.

The latter told an EVENING WORLD reporter this morning that he firmly believed Weber

A man named Weber answering the identiscription, was in Jamaica all last Sat. the veterans are leaving town and may have followed Hannah on the train by Post Commander-in-Chief Beach, of Philastreet, Williamsburg, will also attend the funeral.

WHERE IS GEORGE SMITH?

Among the letters found in Hannah's trunks were several signed "George Smith," and these are said to be very affectionate in tone At the Maternity Hospital in Concord street the record shows that Hannah named George Smith as the father of the child she gave birth

Hannah frequently spoke of Martin Phillips and George Smith to her acquaintances in Hewletts and somehow the impression got Warder. William Farrington, at Cortlands out there that when she left on Saturday night it was to meet and make up with one or the other of her former lovers. It was this impression which led indirectly to the farrington, who was held. arrest of Martin Phillips, who yesterday established an alibi, and since his discharge the belief has obtained that she went to Brooklyn by appointment to meet George

The detectives are now looking for George Smith in order to make him account for his whereabouts last Saturday night.

FATE'S FINGER POINTS OUT A CLUE. Not the least remarkable circumstance in the unfolding of the mystery surrounding the murder came to light yesterday afterno A horse ran away from the stables in the rear of Hohling's Hotel, in Ridgewood, and then ran towards the spot where the dead girl's body was found. His halter became entangled to some underbrush and he came to a standatill not more than 100 yards from the house in the clear-

HANKSH'S MOVEMENTS TRACED.

no could pick this man out from among a chousand figiven an opportunity, and he has time she left the residence of Hev. Thomas Martin in Hewletts Saturday evening up to within a few hours preceding the discovery of her body have been ferreted out by the de-

The officers have also found half a dozen people who saw Hennah and the man together, and all of these persons are confident hey would know the man if they were to see him again.

Hannah told the truth, it has been learned. when she informed Rector Smalley, of Hew-letts, that she was going to Brooklyn. She bought a ticket to that city and went there, a car at the Flatbush avenue station.

From the railroad station Hannah went direct to the Maternity Hospital, on Concord street, between Adams and Washington, arriving there at 6.30 o'clock. When she became a mother, little more than a year ago, Hannah was cared for at this hospital, and Mrs. W. H. Wells, the matron, remembered and recognized her at once.

Hannah asked Mrs. Wells where a Mrs. teeng, who had been an immate when she was being nursed there and to whom she had ecome much attached, could be found. Mrs. Wells told the girl that Mrs. Steeng was livnurderer of pretty Hannah Robinson, the ing at 393 Grand street, Williamsburg, and English servant girl whose dead body was at 6.35 o'clock Hannah left the hospital to call at the address given.

When she reached 302 Grand street she was accompanied by the man who Dooley says was girl's former lover, Martin Phillips, who, it is afterwards with her in Evergreen Cemetery. George Snyder, a furniture dealer, opened day with his sweetheart at Navesink, N. J., the door when Hennah rang at 342. He told the officers at work on the case yesterday discovered several additional important ciues, street, but that she intended to remove to 302 Grand street in a few days.

Hannah thanked him and turning to the man asked him if he would go with her to Scholes street. He said that he would, and Snyder says this man were a light suit, a dark-colored derby hat and had a stubby beard and sandy mustache.

The couple did not at 15 Scholes street, for Mrs. Steeng, who was at home all Satur-

Soon after 7 o'clock, however, Hannah and pect, and there is little doubt that Phillips her companion, according to Policeman Dooley, turned up in Evergreen Cemetery. WHAT POLICEMAN DOOLEY SAW.

"The two went into the little vine-covered arbor just opposite the Cemetery office," said Policeman Dooley to Constable Brechter, and I watched them because from the way they were carrying on I supposed them to be lovers.

"The girl took some letters from a reticule Hannah's child upon him, it is not unlikely that Phillips know of Smith, if he did nos she was reading these letters to him. The fellow tried to snatch the letters from her hands, but she clung to them and finally put them back in the reticule.

*Then the man grew demonstrative. He caught the girl in his arms and hugged and kissed her. I thought it was time to interfere, and stepping out of the office I told them to get out, as it was time to close the gates.
"The man was tall, rather good-looking and about twenty-five or thirty years old. He had on a dark derby hat and light clothes, and wore a choker collar—one of those stand-ups like ministers wear, that meet in the back. His mustache was sandy-colored and his hair a light brown. I'd know him again

VETERANS LEAVING DETROIT.

Reported Dissatisfaction with th Race Question Action. [RY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
DETROIT, Aug. 8.—The business of the Grand Encampment, G. A. R., is finished, and sad may have followed Hannah on the train to Brooklyn.

The dead girl's body was still at the Ridgewood Morgue this morning, but Undertaker Ruoff said she would be buried this atternoon in Evergreen Cemetery beside the grave of her baby.

The dead girl's brothers-in-law, Edward P. Chell, of Allegheny City, Pa., and John Laws, or Williamsburg, arrived in Ridgewood at 11 o'clock this morning and are superintending the arrangements for the funeral.

The dead girl's steer, Mrs. Laws, and her cousin, Mrs. Walker, of 251 North Eighth street, Williamsburg, will also attend the Covington, Ky.; Treasurer, Amelia A. Cher Detroit, Mich.; Chaplain, Miss Clara Bar Washington, D. C.

ROBBERY SOBERED HIM.

Deckhand Klushes Pursued the Man Who Had His Watch.

George Klushes, a deck hand on the steamboat Plymouth, who had been sight-seeing, went to the boat in a rather shaky condition

Alliance-Anti-Lottery Combine.

TBY ASSOCIATED PRESS. 1 NEW OBLEAMS, La., Aug. 8 .- The conference of the Farmers' Alliance and the Anti-Lottery Democrats at La Fayette has resulted in an agreement by which a joint ticket will be mominated. The Alliance will name the Governor, Treasurer and Superintendent of Public Education; the League, the lieuten-ant-Governor, Auditor, Attorney-General and the Secretary of State.

THE WORLD'S OFFER! A Special Midsummer Discount Until Sept. 30 on Board Wanted. 15 PER CENT. DISCOUNT 1 INSERTION. SA PRECENT, DISCOUNT 2 INSERTIONS.

norse, caught up with the animal he found also pawing the ground, and looking down he saw hair a dozen letters.

These letters were addressed to Hannah Robinson, and are evidently the ones letter that the companion tried to take from her by force in the vicinity. Fresh Finds of Silver in Colorado.

by have been turned over to Coroner Assassinated by a Rejected Lover. CINCINNATE, O., AUG. S. - While parsing the corner of Fifth and John streets at 9 o'clock Peliceman Gibert Dooley, of Evergreen Cemetery, says that a girl and a man, whose description he has given to the police, were burned out of the commenters after duck feature.

to informed the authorities at Ridgewood.
Hannah Robinson's movements from the Hannah Winners To-Day.

To Be Run Off.

Some very excellent racing should be witnessed at Morris Park to-day. The best pro- mother of the handsome, hazel-eyed little gramme that has been seen for days will be fellow who sits all day long in Matron run off. There are six races in all, and hair Travers's sky-parlor at Police Headquarters. are stake events. The Amboy Handicap, at | with a hungry, wistful look on his face, to six furlongs, contains some of the best two. have abandoned him so cruelly as she did. for at 8 o'clock a trainman saw her step from year-olds in training. The track will be dry and fast. The entries for the Amboy Handi-

Natura voit
Natura voit
Necromating e
Logil Motley
2 dir Catesby
12 Lonns
112 Actions
112 Tallian
Nery His Highness may be a very good colt. He may even be the best of the year, but he has never shown form which would warrant him giving away all the weight he does to-day. In the writer's opinion the race should be won by the Patrimony colt. This colt ought to have had several races put to his credit by this time had his owners put up a decent jockey. The Patrimony colt possesses a him run at Brooklyn can testify. The best of the McLewee pair, Hellgate or Fred Lea, should be second and Lamplighter may beat the others.

e and a furiong.
7 124 Lizzie...
7 119 Peter
110 Peter
117 filter Prince
115 filter Prince

blus. This will probably be Manhassett, who has been running in first-class shape at the Beach. Kruan may be the runner up and Torchlight may beat the others. First Race. -Handicap sweepstakes, $20 each, with $1,000 added; six furlongs.

ainy Woodruff..... Meriden may win the first event, but it will be a tight fit to best Correction, who should be close up. Kitty T. ought to be third.

Banquet ought to win this event, with Demuth in the place position. Stockton should be third, though it is a trifle further than he oe time comments of the commen

With Bergen in the saddle Queen of Trumps should be a good thing. Lims ought to be second and Pearl Set may beat the others.

From Morning Papers. AT MORRIS PARK. Pirst Race—Correction, Meriden.

Becond Race—Patrimony colt. His Highness.
Third Race—Picknicker, Lizzle.
Fourth Race—Banquet, De Muth.
Fith Race—Adventurer, Queen of Trumpa.
Sixth Race—Kingstock. Kitty T.

First Race—Correction, Castalia. Second Race—Kaluia cott, His Highness. Third Race-Reckon, Picnicker. Fourth Race—Banquet, Stockton, Fifth Race—Adventurer, Queen of Trumpa. Sixth Race—Torchlight, Kingstock.

Pirst Race—Correction, Kitty T. Second Race—His Highness, Lamplighter. Third Race—Boy Del Rey, Reckon. Fourth Race—Demuth, Banquet. Fifth Race—Pearl Set, Queen of Trumps. Sixth Race—Torchlight, Knapsack.

First Race—Meriden, Correction. Second Race—His Highness, Lamplighter. Third Race—Picknicker, Bermuda. Fourth Race—Stockton, Demuth. Fifth Race—Lima, Queen of Trumpa. Sixth Race—Cokena filly, Krush.

LYNCHED FOUR FIREBUGS.

Two Men and Two Women Shet to Death in Alabama.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

BIRKINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 8.—News of a quadruple lynching comes from Honey County, Ala., near Crosby.

The residence of W. P. Davis, a prominent farmer, was burned last Friday, and the family narrowly escaped with their lives. Sunday Ella Williams, colered, was arrested and confessed to having saturated the house with oil and set fire to it out of revenge.

In her confession she implicated Lizzie Lowe, Willis Lowe and Bill Williams.

The Sheriff started from Crosby to Abbeyville jail Thursday with the prisoners. He was overpowered by a mob and the prisoners. It is sail that the next Board meeting will be more fully attended, and that Greener's salary may be again revoked.

SNEEZING TO DEATH.

Strange Malady with Which an Ohio Girl is Affected.

PDISONED AT SEVENTEE AND STREET PRESS. 1

SPAINGPIELD, O., Aug. 8.—The physicians of C.

form saved her from a term of imprisonment at the Tombs this morning. Park Policeman Graham arrested her last night in Battery Park for picking the pocket of Mrs. Hattle Liebschitz, of 40 Mercer street, Jersey City.
The latter did not prosecute, and the venerable prisoner was discharged by Justice of Heily.
It was said Annie, who is seventy-five years old, is a worker at finerals as a pleapocket, and that her photograph is in the Rogues'

THROWN ON A HOT STOVE.

Mrs. Mary Regan's Injuries Inflicted by a Brutal Husband.

Mrs. Mary Regan, of 6 Staple street, is this norning suffering from severe injuries as a result of a beating received at the hands of her drunken numbered isst sight.

She has four bad cits upon the head, and her face and hands are badly burned. She says her husband beat her and then three her of the says her husband beat her and then three her angulated received by a surgeon from Chambers street Hospital. She refuses it make a complaint against her husband and he has not been arrested.

His Third Death Sentence.

His Third Death Sentence.

His Third Death Sentence.

His Third Death Sentence.

day night by him, he having had them under surveillance for an hour. Policetuan Booley ways he is confident that with a Small Wardrobe.

Found in a Ferry-House.

It must have torn the heartstrings of the

But the pain of parting with her beautiful child will be lessened by the pleasure which maker Webster among the men who love a will follow when she knows he is comfortable horse there wasn't even one solitary sport in and well fed and has an easy couch to rest | the court audience—not even a " tout. upon at night.

All the little chap would say this morning to an Evening World reporter was, " My name is Freddy." He was found in the walting-room" of the wonderful burst of speed, as those who saw with tear drops, and his pretty eyes filled with dust and red and swellen from weeping.

Long Island ferryhouse, at the foot of East Granville" Green. Thirty-fourth street, Thursday evening, by Policeman Meyers, of the East Thirty-fifth the West Thirty-seventh street station. street station. He was quiet enough and brought Webster down to the court, Capt. clung persistently to a small bundle wrapped Cross walking with the prisoner from the up in ordinary brown paper.

The last was and his pretty eyes filled with dust and red and swellen from weeping.
The last was and his pretty eyes filled with dust and red and swellen from weeping.
The last was and his pretty eyes filled with dust and red and swellen from weeping.
The last with dust and red and swellen from weeping.
The last with dust and red and swellen from weeping.
The policeman took him to Matron Travers and looked the bundle over. It contained his small stock of clotking. Then the people experienced in such things knew it was another case of an abandoned child.
Treddy is about three years old and of ordinary size for that age. He was clad in a blue and white striped cotton dress, gray skirt, black stockings and wore cheaply made, rough lace shoes. The bundle which the walf cling to contained a second suit complete, consisting of a red and black checked dress, a coarse linen duck skirt and fiannel underclothing.
There is very little doubt that the helpleas child was deliberately abandoned. That he is the child of very poor parents is borne out by the cheapness of its clothing.

RAILROAD MEN ORGANIZE.

Webster was dressed in a suit of blue serge and wore a brown derty hat. More than two hundred women and children swarmed about the entrance to the atation-house when tapt. Cross emerged with his prisoner, and the variety of the entrance to the atation-house when tapt. Cross emerged with his prisoner, and the warmed to come the entrance to the atation-house when tapt.

Webster was dressed in a suit of blue serge and wore a brown derty hat. More than two hundred women and children swarmed about the entrance to the atation-house when tapt. Cross emerged with his prisoner, and the warmed to cost of the care to the entrance to the atation-house when tapt.

Webster was dressed in a suit of bine serge and wore cheaply made, the care to the atation-house when tapt.

Webster was dressed in a suit of bine serge and wore cheaply made, the care to the true Castilian tint in them, were stained hippers over Webster's left wrist.

First Building Association by "L' and Surface Railroad Employees. The first Building and Loan Association formed by railroad employees in this city has just been organized.

centering in New York, including the Elevated roads of New York and Brooklyn, are repre-ment. I am sorry, but I am under orders." sented in it, and the following officers have sented in it, and the following officers have been elected:

President—M. N. Clap, engineer, Central of New Jersey, First Vice-President Joseph W. Johnson, foreman of engineers, Eric. Second Vice-President—J. B. Sweet, fireman, Pennsylvania. Treasurer—John J. McGrane, exe-engineer, "L" road.

Directors—Joel H. Russell: engineer, Sixth Avenue "L" road; E. T. Harvey, fireman, Eric: Thomas Keenan, engineer, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western: John Gademan, fireman, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western: John Gademan, fireman, Oldiware, Lackawanna and Western: John Gademan, fireman, Pichelson, engineer, Long Island Railroad; Jackson Boll, engineer, Third Avenue "L" road; H. Kavenue "L" road; Deminick F. Nicholson, engineer, Ninth Avenue "L" road; Deminick F. Nicholson, engineer, Ninth Avenue "L" road; Deminick F. Nicholson, engineer, Third Avenue "L" road; John W. Rosencrance, engineer, Kings County "L" road; D. McGee, engineer, Knew York, New Haven and Hartford; R. L. Baker, engineer, New York, New Haven and Hartford; Nat. Sawyer, engineer, New York Central; M. J. Lynch, engineer, New York, New Haven and Hartford; Nat. Sawyer, engineer, New York Central; M. J. Lynch, engineer, New York, New Haven and Hartford; Nat. Sawyer, engineer, New York Central; M. J. Lynch, engineer, New York, New Haven and Hartford; Nat. Sawyer, engineer, New York Central; M. J. Lynch, engineer, New York

Last Tuesday evening she was seized with severe parcxysms of sheezing, following each other at rapid intervals.

Suddenly the parcxysms stopped, leaving her very exhausted.

The girl then went into a trance that lasted tweive hours. The terrified attendants thought she was dead.

The physician treated her with hypodermic injections. She finally awake languidly, and in a few minutes the sacczing came on.

The physician treated her with hypodermic injections. She finally awake languidly, and in a few minutes the sacczing came on.

The physician treated her with hypodermic webster pursued Goodwin hurled a cuspidor at him, and then Webster fired the fatal shot from which Goodwin died at Rossevich Bospital six hours later, at 2.15 o'clack Menday morning.

This hardly consists with the fact tha This hardly consists with the fact tha

The physicians have been utterly unable to check them. She neither cats nor sleeps, and suffers terribly.

Helpless Woman Murdered.

[BY ISSOCIATED FRESS.]

Victorial. Tex. Aug. 8.—Miss Mary Hensoldt, imbedie and helpless, was resterday found outrajed and murdered in her room on the lower part of Main street, where she lived without the faintest show of umbrage declined to speak.

for Charles Goodwin's Murder.

He Persists That Actress Evelyn Granville Is His Wife.

Refuses to Answer Questions, and Is Held for the Percival Flat Crime.

Bertram C. Webster, the slayer of Broker harles E. Goodwin, waived examination in Jefferson Market Police Court to-day and was ommitted to the Tombs to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Portly and Chesterfieldian Bill Howe supported the prisoner in person, and the dramatte feature of the arraignment was due to his presence. Despite the boasted popularity of Book-

Handsome Bob Hilliard was the only member of the theatrical profession present, and he seemed to be there out of curiosity rather than as an interested friend of Webster or of his " common law " wife, Betty " Evelyn

Capt. Cross and Detective John Taylor, of station to the Seventh avenue car, assuring Even though his dark, chubby cheeks, with himself of his company by the use of a pair of "Mr. Webster, yesterday you stated to the sergeant at the station that you were a married man-married to Evelyn Granville. Have you any other wife or did you ever have another wife?" asked the reporter. Webster smiled and his builet eyes, too ust been organized. near together, looked through the reporter Engineers and firemen on all the railroads and beyond him as he replied courteously:

"Again I must decline to make any state-Evelyn Granville called at the station-

SECRETARY GREENER ON TOP.

feels scandalized by the affair.

Policeman Allen Hay, who is the nominal complainant in the case, had been searching for Mrs. Hussey, the kind-hearted occupant of a neighboring flat who brought in a hot water bag to be used in easing Goodwin after he was shot, found her this morning and brought her into court much perturbed and mortified at being connected with the case was already by the Execu-of the Grant Monument Fund Trustees, who was legislated out of his salary by the Executive Committee of the Board some time ago, is again on top.

He was getting $2,400 a year, which was abolished, and everybody thought that Mr. Greener would pack up his belongings and seek other fields of usefulness. But they were mistaken.

Mr. Greener believed that it was only a Mr. Greener believed that it was opposed.

Mr. Greener believed that it was only a how were mistaken.

Mr. Greener believed that it was opposed.

Mr. Greener believed that it was opposed.

Mr. Greener believed that it was opposed.

Mr. Greener believed that it was only a how were mistaken.

Mr. Greener believed that it was only a how were mistaken.

Mr. Greener believed that it was only a how were mistaken.

Mr. Greener believed that it was only a how were mistaken.

Mr. Greener believed that it was only a how were mistaken.

Mr. Greener believed that it was only a how were mistaken.

HOWE'S MELODRAMATIC SCENE.

Civil Justice Poter Mitchell, who had been retained in the case with William F. Howe, saw it, and, addressing the Court, said:

"Your Honor, Miss Granville, the wife of the defendant, has been taken into another room by a policemae. It is not right. I ask that you have an officer bring her out again."

Judge Kelly so ordered just as the sometime actress re-entered the court-goom with the handsome Captain behind her.

Mr. Howe called her up on the platform before the Judge's deak and said in a loud and layired tone:

In her contession she implicated Lizze
Lowe, Willis Lowe and Bill Williams.

The Sheriff started from Crosby to Abbeyville jail Toursday with the prisoners. He was overpowered by a mob and the prisoners. He was overpowered by a mob and the prisoners. He rate bodies were thrown in the river. The finding of two of the bodies yesterday revealed the story.

A PRISONER AT SEVENTY-FIVE

No One Appeared To-Day Against the Accused. Annie Malone.

Annie Malone's gray hairs and tottering form saved her from a term of imprisonment. injured tone:
"Mrs. Webster, I say to you now in the

Mrs. Webster's statement is not calculated

THE INQUEST NEXT WEDNESDAY.

The first bale of the New York State hop grap of 1891 was received to-day by John R. Scott & Ca. and sold to Brewer Daniel Ber-mer, of Union Hill, N. J. His Third Death Sentence.

Inv associated prices.

Ext. Johns. Mo., Aug. S.—Lewis Bulling, the side penalty of his crime by escaping from lat. was yesterday sentenced to death at favannah for the third time. Sept. A is the became her bondeman at the request of a period of the complete A herosene lamp exploded in the rooms of James Dunn at 81 Oliver street this morning, causing a fire that did $50 damage.

ÆSOP ON CURRENT EVENTS. XXIX.

A Raven saw a Swan, and desired to secure for himself a like beauty of plumage. Supposing that his splendid whiteness came from washing in the water in which he swam, the Raven took up

HAS IT BEEN ABSORBED?

Rumors About a Cross-Town Line

and the Lamont Syndicate.

It was rumored this morning that, in spite

Started by an Exploding Lamp.

his abode in ditches and puddles. But the change nearly killed him, while it did not improve his feathers.

the same man who was bondsman for Cassie Brooks, the woman of the town who was a presented for trying to paim herself off as the widow of Millionaire loring H. Bobortson.

Webster is Vice-President of the Standard Ciub, of 254 West Thirty-fourin street, a rich organization of bookmakers and horsemen. But none of Webster's resing friends seem to have interested themselves in him at this time of trouble.

SAW THE BODY ROBBED.

A Boy Throws Light on the Mystery of Prof. Korff's Case.

The family of Prof. Charles A. Korff, of Morrisania, who was found in the Sound last Monday, have not yielded in their belief that he was murdered despite Capt. McCul
Ment been mande to bury him to discuss a fine looking man, rather stout, and wore a gray moustache. He had been a member of the Consolidated Exchange since its organization, and was formerly a member of old National Petroleum Board.

When he came to this city he had considerable a member of the Charles at the Consolidated Exchange on the time of his death had not been able to the time of his death had not been able to the time of his death had not been able to the time of his death had not been able to the time of his death had not been able to the time of his death had not been able to the time of his death and not been able to the time of his death and not been able to the time of his death and not been able to the time of his death and not been able to the time of his death and not been able to the time of his death and not been able to the time of his death and not been able to the time of his death and not been able to the time of his death and not been able to the time of his death and not been able to the time of his death and not been able to the time of his death and not been able to the time of his death and not been a member of lod National Petroleum Board.

Three alarms were sounded at 3.10 o'clock the Swar death of the Charles at the Exchange only t last Monday, have not yielded in their belief that he was murdered despite Capt. McCullagh's report of "no evidence."

The tamily have been following up clues, and have an interesting statement made by Harry Biddle, the eleven-year-old son of Mrs. C. Biddle, of 122 East One Hundred and Nineteenth street.

Harry are that he with recent of the county are all other than the county are a second alarm. Policeman Donohue, of the Charles street Harry says that he, with several other boys, was at Oak Point last Monday when he saw two men in a row-boat tow a body to the When the firemen got to the scene they found the ground floor, where the engine-room is, ablaze. Half a dozen streams of shors.

A third man in a second boat followed, and when the two first rowed away, after hauling the body up on the sand, the third rifled the pocket. Harry declares that the man took a watch, a pocket-book and some sliver change. The man also cut a shirt stud out of the shirt and wrapped all in a handkerchief. Chief Bonner ordered a third alarm, which prought the entire available force in the district to the scene with water tower No. 2 and | fined at Centre Moriches, L. I. the fire-boat New Yorker. The fire had reached the upper floors the warrant for Wynne's arrest found that through the staircases and elevator shafts, he was in this city and was expected in Conof the emphatic denials of officers of the lines and the flames extended through each floor. It is denoted the lamont widener-liking street in less than twenty minutes the fire had really acquired control burned through the root of the west end of to look out for Wynne on the train at Bell-

30 PER CENT. DISCOUNT 3 INSERTIONS Fighting Favragut.

An engraving couting $12 in original for 5 centsOverend's great battle piece. "An August Morning with Farragut"—16% by 25 impless free with every copy of to-morrow's Montague JOURNAL.".

15 PER CENT. DISCOUNT 1 INSERTION

25 PER CENT. DISCOUNT 2 INSERTIONS.

2 O'CLOCK.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PLANNED SUIGIDE A YEAR AGO,

Broker Campbell Was Suspended by the Consolidated Exchange.

Prospect Park's Self-Murderer Well Known on Wall Street.

Norman Campbell, the Consolidated Ex-change stock broker, chose a queer place in Prospect Park, and, sitting down on a banch, watched the tennis players for more than two Then he took a revolver from his pocks

Campbell was fifty-eight years old and lived an office at 60 Broadway in this city.

Although his family did not know it, It ap-Actioning his family did not know is, it spears he had been contemplating suicide for more than a year, for this note was found incidened in a solled and pocket-worn envelope:

"My last wish and request to my wife is that I be cremated when dead—not buried.

"Noman Carrental."

"May 3, 1890."

Dashing Harry Wynne Too Smart for His Long Island Jailers.

Under Sheriff Petty, who was armed with

Commence of the light of the

A Special Midsummer Discount Until Sept. 30 on Board Wanted. 18 PER CENT. DISCOUNT & DISERTIONS SO PER CENT. DISCOUNT & DISERTIONS SO PER CENT. DISCOUNT & DISERTIONS which to end his life. He went out to the children's playground in and deliberately blew out his brains, right in the midst of a romping throng of innocent at 179 South Oxford street, Brooklyn, with his wife, two sons and a daughter. He had

"May 3, 1890."
His family say that they will not carry out his request to be cremated, but that arrangements have been made to bury him in the

Henry G. Wynne, the son-in-law of the late Gov. McEnery, of Louisiana, who was ar-rested for swindling Mrs. Harriet Each, of this city, out of $1,000, has made his escape from the officers at a hotel where he was con

THE WORLD'S OFFER!